Campana Sobre Campana: Christmas in Mexico

Celebrate the holiday season with Campana Sobre Campana: Christmas in Mexico! Named for the beloved Andalusian Christmas Carol, this vibrant show weaves cherished Mexican traditions into a magical story of the season. Experience the heartwarming reenactment of Mary and Joseph's journey, the spirit of Posadas, the majesty of the Reyes Magos, and the thrill of breaking piñatas! The joyous rhythms of "Bells Upon Bells" and the colorful spectacle of Mexican dance is a holiday treat for the entire family!

Eternamente: A Día de los Muertos Spectacular!

We invite the audience to join us in a "Community Celebration of Life" featuring lively music and dance, beautiful costumes, and a virtual altar to those we have lost. This show is an homage to Mexico's rich cultural heritage blending graceful traditional dance with vibrant storytelling. It also tips a hat to the great Mexican singers of yesteryear such as Vicente Fernandez, Pedro Infante, Lucha Villa, and more. Eternamente is a portal into the heart of us all, where every twirl and note becomes a tribute to the beauty of remembrance.

Fiestas de Mexico: A Cultural Celebration

Step into the enchanting world of Fiestas de Mexico: A Cultural Celebration where time-honored traditions come to life during each spirited performance! Witness the essence of Mexican celebrations, from the exuberant footwork of wedding dances to the graceful movements symbolizing quinceañeras. Mariachi Garibaldi de Jaime Cuéllar and Ballet Folklórico del Rio Grande bring you energetic portrayals of birthdays, rodeos, and other festive occasions that will immerse you in the joyous spirit of Mexican culture, its customs, and the heartwarming connections forged during these cherished moments!

Jarabe Mexicano

New show alert! Rockin' America: A Latin Legends Tribute

Holiday shows: Día de los Muertos: A Celebration of Life | A Bordoño Soul Christmas

For more than a decade, Jarabe Mexicano has brought their ever-evolving cultural alchemy to the stage! The bilingual Latin-fusion band blends traditional Mexican roots with global dance styles creating a high-energy show that feels both nostalgic and completely fresh. The band features soulful powerhouse vocals and infectious dance moves backed by the driving syncopated rhythms of the norteño drums. Their smooth harmonies on the acoustic guitar, the deep pulse of mariachi guitarrón bass, and the soaring melodies of Caribbean-style saxophone are an open invitation to the dance floor!

Introducing Hiram Perez

Caro Pierotto

New show alert! A Heartfelt Sing-Along (Wellbeing Concert)

More shows: Rooted in Rhythm: A Brazilian Heart on an American Journey | Bossa Christmas | Sambalismo

Caro Pierotto draws from her Brazilian roots, singing songs in English and Portuguese, with a solid set of originals mixed in. You will hear the gentle sway of Brazil's Bossa Nova rhythms and the pulse of samba give way to the sights and sounds of her adopted country, the United States. Backed by her all-star band, Caro says, "I think of my show as a trip that takes you for a visit to Brazil for a bit while also sharing the musical influences from my nearly 20 years in the U.S."

Caro and Grecco

Two new shows! A Thousand Ways Home | A Heartfelt Sing-Along (Wellbeing Concert)

Caro Pierotto and Grecco Buratto grew up a few miles from each other in the south of Brazil but only met after living in Los Angeles for a decade. Their paths crossed at one of Caro's shows in Hollywood and the rest, as they say, is history. As partners in life and music, they have written, produced, and recorded over 70 songs together. Through soothing Bossa Rhythms and storytelling, they share their life experiences and devotion to the healing power of music. Grecco performs as lead guitarist for Lionel Richie. When he isn't touring worldwide, he joins Caro's all-star Brazilian band on her tours, or the couple performs as a duo.

R. Carlos Nakai

"The haunting sound of the Native American flute is gaining more widespread appeal in recent years, and R. Carlos Nakai is the reason for it."

- Billboard Magazine

Available Shows: Native Rhythms, Native Jazz | Awakening the Fire | America's Ancestral Voices

Considered the world's premier performer of the Native flute, R. Carlos Nakai is the only Native American performer in the Indigenous genre to have a Platinum Record – Canyon Trilogy – with over one million sold. He serves as an ambassador who consistently draws new faces and capacity audiences to concert venues. Nakai has a successful career across several music genres while performing with various notable musicians. He is an eleven- time Grammy® nominee with many longtime fans who follow him into the concert hall.

Jessica Fichot

Available Shows: From Paris to Shanghai | New Spring 新春天 | Holidays Around the World

Accompanied by her accordion, toy piano, and fiery band, singer/songwriter Jessica Fichot draws from her French/Chinese/American heritage to create an intoxicating program of French chanson, 1940s Shanghai jazz, gypsy swing and international folk. Jessica charms audiences around the world—performing her lively songs at concert halls and festivals in China, Mexico, Canada and across the US and western Europe. Featuring scorching performances from her bandmates on clarinet/sax, upright bass and guitar, as well as her own beautiful, clear vocals in French, Mandarin Chinese, Spanish and English, Fichot's music is truly a dazzling trans-world journey.

The Spicy Pickles

The Spicy Pickles features singer Hannah Rodriguez – a four-time Downbeat Award Winner – backed by a 7-piece ensemble. Known as a Swing Band that gets everyone on their feet, the highly sought-after Spicy Pickles broadens their set lists to include elements of jazz, funk, soul, and pop. They draw inspiration from legends like James Brown, T-Bone Walker, and Count Basie. They also embrace contemporary influences such as Sharon Jones & The Dap Kings, Amy Winehouse, and The California Honeydrops.

LP And The Vinyl

LP And The Vinyl features acclaimed vocalist, Leonard Patton, who recently toured internationally with Pat Metheny. As singer with LP And The Vinyl, Patton masterfully leads the band in a blend of groove, soul, and storytelling – the sound feels both timeless and right now. The music invites you in – it is rich, rhythmic, and deeply human. You can expect big energy, deep musicality, and moments that make it impossible to sit still. This is music that honors craft and celebrates connection. It reminds us why live performance matters and why gathering together in a room like this is its own kind of magic.

Robert Sims, Baritone

Robert Sims is an acclaimed lyric baritone renowned for his rich, resonant voice and captivating stage presence. Recognized internationally for his artistry, the versatile Sims performs with piano, chamber ensembles, choirs, and orchestras. He has earned particular praise for his interpretations of African American spirituals. He has graced prestigious venues such as Carnegie Hall, Lincoln Center, the Kennedy Center, and major concert halls across Europe, Asia, and North America.

Zephyr Brass Collective

Zephyr Brass Collective is redefining what a brass quintet can be! Known for their fearless blend of classical precision and boundary-pushing creativity, this powerhouse ensemble seamlessly moves from reimagined pop anthems to bold new commissions, and from jazz-infused grooves to electrifying takes on orchestral favorites.
