

JARABE MEXICANO ON TOUR

“DIA DE LOS MUERTOS: A Celebration Of Life”

[City, State, Date] — Jarabe Mexicano is back on the road bringing their ever-evolving cultural alchemy to the stage. This bilingual Latin-fusion band blends traditional Mexican roots with global dance styles creating a high-energy show that feels both nostalgic and completely fresh. The band features soulful powerhouse vocals and infectious dance moves backed by the driving syncopated rhythms of the Norteño drums. These are enhanced by the smooth harmonies of the acoustic guitar, the deep pulse of Mariachi guitarrón bass, and the soaring melodies of Caribbean-style saxophone. With compelling anecdotes throughout, Jarabe jumps seamlessly between festive Cumbia, Salsa, and Tex-Mex, then shifts to gritty Rock & Roll, and on to emotionally charged Pop and Folk ballads. More than just performances, their concerts are a celebration of bicultural musical heritage that leave audiences singing, dancing, and cheering for more!

Vilar Performing Arts Center raves that "Jarabe Mexicano is thought-provoking, heartfelt, and engaging... a season highlight that brought our community together in a way that we've never witnessed before." Lauded as cultural ambassadors, their bilingual seasonal show “DIA DE LOS MUERTOS: A Celebration Of Life” features music and an altar that honors the international artists that have impacted the band’s personal lives.
