Marian Liebowitz, CEO

I'm Marian Liebowitz and I thank you for your interest in the MLAM roster of spectacular ensembles! The vision for my agency has been a long time coming. In truth, it started while I was still in my 35-year career as both an international clarinet soloist and a tenured professor at San Diego State University. That's where the roots of my multi-cultural, multi-discipline tastes came together. From day one, it has been of key importance that my artists be able to perform before a wide variety of audiences in the broadest definition of situations. All MLAM artists follow my professional standards. I hope you will enjoy this carefully curated roster of the best ensembles in world music and dance, jazz, and classical. Arts for all: MLAM is available to bring concerts to venues and events worldwide.

Aaron Liebowitz, Media & Operations

AMERICA

In honor of the 250th birthday of the United States, we offer the following shows:

Cultural Crossroads: Dvořák in America

This program weaves original Native American melodies and moving African American Spirituals along with Dvořák's most beloved chamber music. An All-Star cast brings this story to life!

LP And The Vinyl: A Tribute to American Songwriters

The story of American music is, at its core, a story of songwriters—those tireless creators who have woven the fabric of a nation's soundtrack. LP And The Vinyl: A Tribute to U.S. Songwriters is a celebration of these artists, such as Stevie Wonder, Kenny Loggins, and Jimi Hendrix- all seen through the lens of jazz. Audiences will be taken through the decades with greatest hits reimaged!

America's Ancestral Voices:

An Evening with R. Carlos Nakai, William Eaton, and Will Clipman

In the shadow of the setting sun, as the horizon blurs into a tapestry of gold and indigo, the stage is set for a musical journey unlike any other. Led by American Native flutist R. Carlos Nakai, America's Ancestral Voices is an invitation to listen, to reflect, and to be transported by the resonant echoes of history, tradition, and the boundless beauty of indigenous soundscapes.

Caro Pierotto:

A Brazilian Heart on an American Journey

Backed by her all-star band, Caro says “I think of my show as a trip that takes you for a visit to Brazil for a bit while also sharing the musical influences from my nearly 20 years in the U.S.” The audience will hear original songs and new interpretations of familiar favorites sung in English and Portuguese such as “Girl From Ipanema”, “Killing Me Softly”, and “Can’t Take My Eyes Off of You”.

Jessica Fichot: An American From Paris

A multilingual joie-de-vivre! Step into a world where the cobblestone charm of Paris meets the vibrant pulse of Shanghai - all seen through the eyes of an American traveler. U.S.-born singer and songwriter Jessica Fichot draws from her youth in Paris and her French, Chinese, and American roots to offer an evening of musical storytelling that bridges continents and cultures.

Celebrating America: A Tribute Through Song & Spirit with Robert Sims

"Celebrating America with Robert Sims" is more than a performance; it is a vibrant journey across the heart of a nation. Sims, renowned for his rich baritone and magnetic stage presence, curates a program that weaves together spirituals, Broadway favorites, patriotic classics, and the best of contemporary classical composers—each selection a thread in the nation's grand tapestry.

The Spicy Pickles Celebrate America:

"Royal Flush: The Great American Dance Bands"

The Spicy Pickles bring audiences back to the golden age of swing with a program celebrating the iconic bandleaders who defined America's soundtrack in the 1930s-40s.

"Groove Through The Ages: The Music That Moves America"

This program celebrates the foundation laid by Basie, Goodman, Ellington, and Waller — while showcasing the raw, driving energy of Louis Jordan, Helen Humes, Hot Lips Page, Big Jay McNeely, and Pearl Bailey.

"From Swing to Jump: America's Jukebox Revolution"

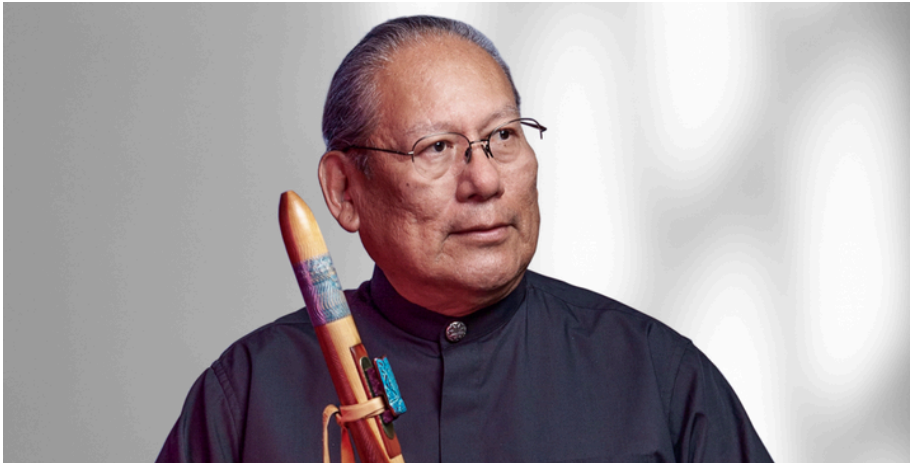

In Harlem during the 1920s and 30s, rent parties were more than just entertainment — they were how people paid the bills, built community, and found joy in hard times. The spirit of survival, social life, and celebration carried forward into the dance halls of the swing era, the jump blues of the 1940s, and later into funk and soul, where the groove only deepened.

R. Carlos Nakai

"The haunting sound of the Native American flute is gaining more widespread appeal in recent years, and R. Carlos Nakai is the reason for it."

- Billboard Magazine

The only American Native Musician to have a platinum record, along with two gold records, eleven Grammy nominations, a Nammy Award, and a Governor's Arts Award

Mariachi Garibaldi de Jaime Cuéllar
